Four Weekend Intensives

Weekend One - Family Matrix:

This is the instrument used to make visible the normally hidden dynamics operating in relationship systems. The Family Matrix begins to release and realign these generational patterns, calling back the individual's fundamental option to chose, and allowing more love and light to flow freely through the family and ultimately the world.

Weekend Two - Gestalt Breakthrough Process:

The purpose of the personal breakthrough is to provide a mental, emotional and physical reframe for a limiting belief. This breakthrough process facilitates an opportunity for release of negative patterns of relating that have been with the participant most of their life.

Weekend Three - Personal Feng Shui:

The ancient eastern art of Feng Shui can dramatically improve your health, happiness and personal prosperity by maximizing positive energy and harmony in your life. The theories of Feng Shui are explained and activities designed to make changes in your surroundings and especially your personal life.

Weekend Four - Spiritual Coaching and Building Your Business:

The ideas and perspectives presented in this weekend represent a major shift in the ways you probably view and express yourself as a coach, particularly in comparison to conventional models. Masterful Marketing requires a personal paradigm shift in the way you see yourself, others, and the evolution of your business.
